

Birdie Brunch and Grooming Days

What: Birdie Brunch – A fun social time for you and your bird!

When: The second Sunday of each month, 10-12

Where: Avalon Aviary Event Center (at our store)

Who should participate:

- Anyone who has a bird and would like to socialize with other bird people, or socialize their bird with other people
- Anyone who is thinking about getting a bird, to talk with bird people and meet some birds

What to expect:

- A fun social time for you and your bird – people talk, birds squawk
- Bagels, fruit, veggies and water for birds
- Bagels, fruit, veggies, coffee, tea, juice and water for people

What to bring:

- You can bring your bird to the brunch if it is healthy and has been to the vet within the last year.
- If you bring your bird, please bring a copy of his or her vet check
- If possible, bring something for your bird to sit on during the brunch.
- You do not HAVE to bring a bird, you are welcome to just come and socialize with bird owners.

Registration: $10 per person

Note: if you register for Birdie Brunch we are reserving the first 30 minutes with Stacy the groomer for Birdie Brunch participants. Please let us know if you want a grooming appointment because those slots will fill up quickly!
